

21
November

7 PM–9 PM
National Arts Centre,
Fountain Room

FREE ADMISSION!

The Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives and the Council of Canadians present

RE-OPENING NAFTA

Making it Work for People.

What does U.S. president-elect Barack Obama's recent promise to renegotiate NAFTA mean for Canadians?

What should be on the table?

Join noted broadcaster Ken Rockburn in conversation with a panel of prominent NAFTA critics and observers.

This event is also the Ottawa launch of Does North America Exist? Copies will be on sale.*

Maude
Barlow

Chair, Council of Canadians, and Senior Advisor on Water, United Nations

Professor Stephen
Clarkson

University of Toronto, CCPA research associate, and author of just-released book *Does North America Exist: Governing the continent after NAFTA and 9/11

Peter
Julian

Member of Parliament,
New Democratic Party trade critic

Moderated by Ken
Rockburn

Broadcaster